IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EMS LEADERSHIP ACADEMY 2009

Catskill Hudson Area Health Education Center (AHEC) will hold its sixth consecutive EMS Leadership Academy on April 25, 2009. It is offered for in person attendance at Ulster County BOCES in Port Ewen, New York or via live webcast. This workshop is targeted toward EMS captains, officers and others in our about to be placed in a position of leadership in their agency and is offered in collaboration with Hudson Valley Regional Emergency Medical Services Council (REMSCO).

The EMS Leadership Academy addresses many of the central responsibilities of an EMS administrator and presents a learning experience tailored to EMS providers by experienced leaders in EMS. Professional development efforts in areas like administration, supervision and safety are addressed. These skills and concepts are critical to every EMS service's long-term success and role as a community caretaker.

Past EMS Leadership Academy attendee comments about the "passion and knowledge base of the speakers", the "very informative and useful material", and the "thought provoking topics" are testimony to the quality of the workshops. Additional comments stating that workshop(s) made attendees "motivated to get things done right", "rethink their priorities", and that attendees were "bringing back valuable information to utilize within their organization" affirmed to Catskill Hudson AHEC that the EMS Leadership Academy continues to meet its objective.

For a complete program description and to enroll in the EMS Leadership Academy 2009, please visit the Catskill Hudson AHEC website at www.chahec.org/events or contact Catskill Hudson AHEC at (845) 883-7260.

Catskill Hudson AHEC is a non-profit organization devoted to improving the quality, geographic distribution and retention of healthcare professionals and stimulating interest in health professions careers through education across its 11-county service area.
